++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with plenty of sunshine.

Today:
Most places will have a dry and bright day with good spells of sunshine. There will be a few wintry showers in the far northeast. A cold, frosty start but feeling a little warmer in afternoon sunshine. Light winds.

Tonight:
Much of the Country will have a dry, clear night with a widespread sharp frost and light winds. Still a few wintry showers over Shetland.

Tuesday:
Most parts of Scotland will have a dry and bright day with plenty of sunshine. There will be a few coastal showers and the odd one inland in the afternoon.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
High pressure will keep mostly dry, settled conditions with sunny spells and just a few showers. Turning milder but still a frost risk at nights. Winds staying light.
